WHAT THE SETTING DOES WELL

- Relationships between adults and children were warm and nurturing and children displayed feelings of security.
- The setting's administrative coordinator demonstrated an understanding of the setting, was acquainted with all children and their families and readily provided additional support where needed.

OVERALL JUDGEMENT

Weak

Excellent

Exceptionally high quality of performance or practice

Good

The expected level for every school in the Cayman Islands, both government and private

Satisfactory

The minimum level of quality required for the Cayman Islands. All key aspects of performance and practice in every school should meet or exceed this level.

Weak

Quality not yet at the level acceptable for schools in the Cayman Islands. Schools will be expected to take urgent measures to improve the quality of any aspect of their performance or practice judged at this level.

AREAS FOR DEVELOPMENT

- Take urgent steps to improve health and safety practices and procedures to embed a culture of safety across the setting.
- Review the curriculum offering to ensure children develop phonological awareness, early numeracy and scientific understanding.
- Ensure a rigorous system of performance management to ensure consistently high-quality teaching, promote targeted professional growth and ensure a safe learning environment.
